Dear Mr Garrison

I am taking with me to my Lord a book of which I request your acceptance. It is written by a very dear friend of ours and I think you will find many things that-

You will like. He is a man such as we spoke of last evening - who always goes to the root of things and is intensely in earnest.

Hoping that you may have a very pleasant passage and find your dear ones at home well.

Relieve me with kindest regards, in which my husband unites very sincerely
Your friend
Eliza M Bousfield

William Lloyd Garrison Esq.
